

Lantau Island - Day Tour (8 hours)
The Big Buddha and Fishing Village

9:30 Leave the hotel and use the MTR to get to the city of Tung Chung.

- Travel by cable-car through breathtaking landscape to the complex of the largest sitting Buddha statue in the world.
- Tour the Buddha complex, through a Chinese style village to the Buddha statue, Po Lin Monastery, and a short hike to the “Wisdom Path”.
- A short local bus ride to Tai O fishing village, known as “Hong Kong’s Venice”.
- Take a ride in a small boat to the open sea to view the white Chinese dolphins and massive construction of the bridge that will connect Hong Kong to Macau.
- A tour through the authentic village paths and local or Western style lunch (according to your choice).
- Return by bus to the city of Tung Chung where the famous outlet shopping center is located.

17:30 End of tour.

Please note:

- There may be changes to the schedule, according to weather conditions.
- It is recommended to plan the tour for mid-week (weekends are very busy).
- Get an ‘Octopus’ ticket at the airport for use on all public transport.
- Travel is by the most convenient, inexpensive public transport in Hong Kong (bus, MTR, ferry and taxi).
- It is recommended to bring an umbrella, hat, water and comfortable hiking shoes.

Tour’s cost:

US$250 for the tour (up to 4 people). Payment in local currency is also accepted.

The price does not include:

Meals and entrance fees to the Buddha complex.